REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Timrod Elementary School provides best practices for students in 4K-6th grades. Our mission is to prepare students for a lifetime of learning through human relationships, appropriate curriculum, and the use of technology, in an environment conducive to utilizing an integrated, standards-based curriculum that emphasizes technology resources to actively engage all students. Timrod has a balanced literacy program that includes a literacy lab, Reading Renaissance, Write for the Beginning Writing program, two Reading Recovery teachers and ELA Coach. Hands-on activities are provided in math which includes Everyday Counts Calendar Math and assistance from an instructional coach. Professional development is provided to assist teachers with effective classroom instruction.

Many extracurricular activities are provided for our students to develop responsibility, leadership skills and school pride. Activities include: service projects, art club, Mad Science club, dance team, drama club, chorus, Good News, Recycling Club, Brigadiers, student marshals, band, strings, Red Tie Club, Timrod Pearls, WTES-TV student-produced news program, and Beta Club. Timrod encourages parents and community involvement in a several areas. Out Timrod Red Tie Club and Timrod Pearls Club require parent involvement throughout the year. Guest speakers at club meetings are community leaders that inspire students to develop strong leadership skills. A new Timrod tradition, Dads Involved In Youth (DIY) Day, invites students and significant male figures to participate in a hands-on building project, thus strengthening the relationships with male figures in the community.

Timrod received an A on the schools report card based upon the ESEA waiver for the 2011-2012. PASS Scores for 2012 indicates the need to focus on Science and Math instruction. Our school is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools by the Commission on International and Trans-Regional Accreditation (CITA). Developing and exhibiting good character is a school-wide goal. We work towards our goal by providing a bully curriculum, guidance lessons, faith-based mentors, use of the PBIS discipline system, student clubs and participation in service projects. The National Network of Partnership Schools also recognized Timrod for Promising Partners Practices for our Red Tie Club. The school was recognized for Model School and Model library by Reading Renaissance. Student incentives for exhibiting model behavior are Character Coupons, ROAR Cards, key chain tokens, Princi-Pal, attendance awards.
